Not too much to report this month. I have been added to the area bank account. I will plan to hold subcommittee meetings for outreach and newsletter after the new year, dates will be announced at the next ASC. In the meantime, I would recommend that we support all meetings in our area.

Shevana Special Events ASC November Report
Hello everyone! I apologize for not being there tonight.
This past month we have had 2 meetings and have had a few new faces attend.
A deposit was made to the special events account in the amount of $174.57 from the Chili Cookoff. Our cost for the event supplies were $34.78 and $50.70 towards prizes. There have been 2 checks written in the past month; $50.70 to Shevana Literature for prizes and 34.78 to Bailey R. For supplies reimbursement. We have 682.76 in our account currently.
Our next event is the New Years Eve Party on Saturday, December 31st. We are planning a potluck breakfast for dinner, games, music, dancing, a clean time countdown, ball drop, etc.
We will have more information after our next meeting on Nov. 27th @ 3:15 pm at the Edgehill meeting room.
-In loving service, Shevana Area Special Events Chair Bailey R.

NO ATTACHMENTS RECEIVED TO ATTACH TO THE MINUTES.

QUESTIONS ON REPORTS:

- Rates for the AVCNA increase on 12/15.
- There is a misspelling on the Special Events NYE Party Flyer. Flyer will still be distributed.

- Members are encouraged to write email addresses legibly on the attendance sheet. Also, the minutes are put on the website within 10 days of when the Secretary sends the minutes to the Public Relations Chair.
- Questions were asked about copies for the minutes and each subcommittee is responsible for downloading and printing.
- A question was asked to the Literature Chair about the $2.00 bank charge. The Literature Chair is not sure what this fee is for exactly.

OPEN FORUM:

1. The Twelfth Concept was read by Stephen P.
2. A question was asked about nominations for Outreach. The person should come to the next ASC meeting to take the nomination.
3. Nominations are next month! All positions are open. Stephen encouraged the spirit of rotation, and he is not able to be nominated again as Chair.
4. A member shared that their feelings have been hurt and thought that it was important to share this.
5. A Special Events member encouraged everyone to attend the NYE Party. The venue has been confirmed and it will be held at Grace Downtown of Winchester. Quinton spreads the word that service in Special Events is fun and very similar to party planning. Linda offered a suggestion to Quinton from Special Events to spread the word about Special Events to those outside of the SheVANA area. There have been challenges with timing and securing venues only two weeks in advance.
6. A member of the body brought up concerns from newcomer NA members who have expressed that they do not feel welcome at NA meetings. The person let the body know that no specific meetings were mentioned but encouraged everyone to remember to talk to and greet the number. Other members voiced their concerns regarding this as well. Making newcomers feel welcome starts with the GSR's.
7. Concerns were brought up about the Regional. There are budget challenges and concerns. RCM's are not communicating or if they are, it is not being communicated in the minutes. There were communication challenges shared regarding the Region. Some people that attend these meetings are intimidated by members. Proposed budget should be discussed at the next RSC meeting on 12/17.

BREAK @ 7:16 pm *****

Stephen P. called the meeting back to order and read the Serenity Prayer.
